

The members of the Institute of Governmental Advocates would like to express our appreciation and thanks for the work of the Senate and Assembly Sergeants-at-Arms, Leadership Staffs and Rules Committee. As we return to work in a physically distanced work environment we know that you are all working to make our experience as comfortable and safe as possible. Thank you for all of your hard work.